SINGAPORE DELEGATION LED BY SENIOR MINISTER GOH CHOK TONG VISITS UNDERWATER WORLD XIAMEN

SINGAPORE, 27 October 2009 – Singapore Exchange Mainboard-listed Straco Corporation Limited, a leading developer and operator of tourism-related assets in China today welcomed a Singapore delegation led by Singapore Senior Minister Goh Chok Tong to its Underwater World Xiamen (“UWX”) attraction.

UWX is located at the scenic Gulangyu Island and is a key tourist attraction of Xiamen City. The aquarium, with over 4 million litres of water capacity, features marine animal performances and a display of a wide array of fresh water and marine livestock.

Accompanied by officials from the Fujian provincial and Xiamen municipal governments, the Singapore delegation toured Gulangyu Island and officiated at a ground breaking ceremony for the site earmarked for the proposed redevelopment of the UWX attraction, which will also include a Cross-Strait aquarium.

Commenting on the visit, Straco’s Executive Chairman and founder, Mr Wu Hsioh Kwang, said, “We are deeply honoured by the visit of SM Goh and his delegation, and officials from the Fujian and Xiamen governments. We are pleased to be recognised as a major investor and developer of premier attractions and tourism related assets, and will continue to target high quality tourism and entertainment projects in China to fuel our growth.”
